

"Government big enough to supply everything you need is big enough to take everything you have ... The course of history shows that as a government grows, liberty decreases." -- Thomas Jefferson

I'm strongly against this plan to compel Internet providers to open their networks to easy surveillance. I kindly request that you not try to transform the US into a police state.